

17TH JUNE 2021

MAGNITSKY LAWS : COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS

A joint seminar with Human Rights Watch and the University of Tokyo International law training and Research hub

Co-organized by HSP, RCSP and GSI

<https://forms.gle/g1pmfXw3CSbkvNFx6>

Keynote speakers :

- Prof. Clara Portela

Professor, University of Valencia

- Mr. Simon Henderson

Head of Policy, Save the Children Australia

- Mr. Akira Igata

Executive Director and Visiting Professor at the Center for Rule-making Strategies

Date : 17th of June 2021

Language : English (with Japanese interpretation)

Location : Online (pre-registration required)

Moderator : Professor Ai Kihara-Hunt : Director, University of Tokyo International Law Training and research hub

Panelists :

- Paul Namkoong : University of Tokyo
International Law Training and Research
hub
- Mei Kanehara : University of Tokyo
International Law Training and Research
hub

18:00 - 18:05 Opening by the University of Tokyo International Law Training and Research Hub, HRW Japan

18:05-18:15 Research findings by comparative studies on Magnitsky framework, the International Law Hub, the University of Tokyo

18:15 -18:30 The case of EU by Prof. Clara
Portela

18:30 - 18:45 The case of Australia by Mr.
Simon Henderson

18:45 - 19:00 The case of Japan by Mr. Akira
Igata

19:00 - 19:30 Q and A

19:30 Closing

